

Professor Warnakulasuriya is an emeritus professor of Oral Medicine and Experimental Pathology at King's College London, UK and was the Chairman of the Oral Medicine Division at King's College Hospital and at Guy's Hospital, London from 2005 -2015. He has made major contributions in cancer epidemiology, oral medicine and experimental pathology and particularly to the OPMD literature. He is the Director of the WHO Collaborating Centre for Oral Cancer

Professor Warnakulasuriya received the IADR Distinguished Scientist Award in Oral Medicine and Pathology in 2014, IADR Distinguished Scientist Award in Global Oral Health in 2022. He received an OBE award from the Majesty the Queen for his services to Medicine. He was elected a Fellow of King's College London (FKC) for sustained and significant contributions to the College.